

5-Year Warranty

All components are warranted against defects in material and workmanship, occurring under normal operating conditions, for a period of five years from date of shipment. Should any component become defective during the warranty period, it will be replaced free of charge by Trans-Tech.

A replacement unit will be shipped upon notification of any type of defect. The shipping carton of the replacement sign should be used to return the defective unit.

Signature

Date

